Musashino-Chuo Park is a all-purposed park, and located at the top of Tama region.

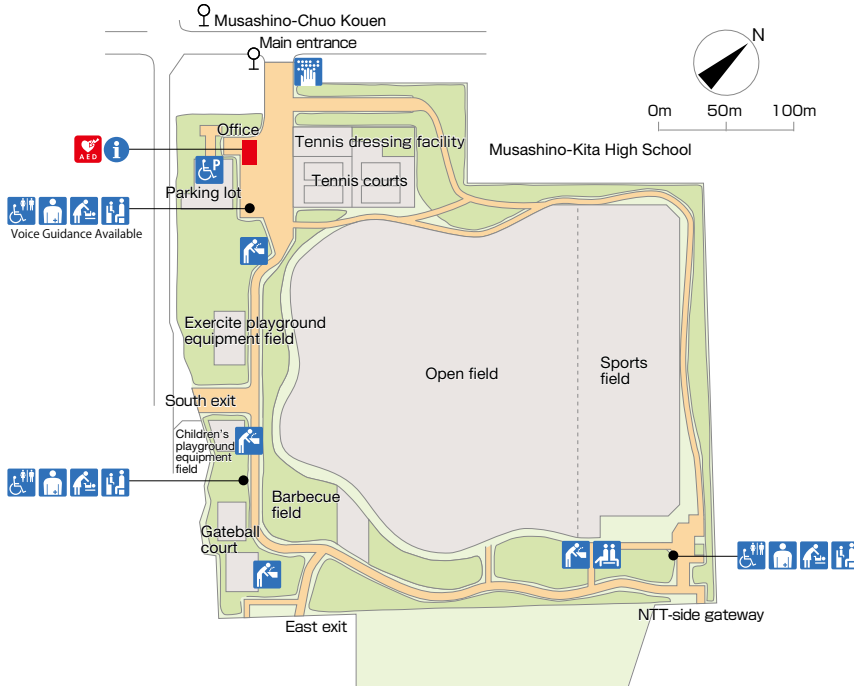

A factory of a large military supplier, Nakajima Aircraft, occupied the area before World War II. After the war, the area became housing for the United States Army and called Green park. Later with the voice of the resident the place was established in June 1989 as a park.

It is centered on a large Grassy field and Sports field on a flat land.

There are woods of Musashino (konara oak, sawtooth, oak, acacia, Japanese zelkova, etc.) around the park.
