Originally, Shiokaze Park was established as an Area 13 Park in a part of area No. 13. With the subsequent development of the surrounding areas as a Tokyo water-front, it went through an overall renovation and was reborn as Shiokaze Park. It resides adjacent to the Odaiba Marine Park.

Water and greenery promenade

California fan palms and cascades along the south section main park path linking the south central entrance with the fountain plaza create an exotic feel.

Water and greenery promenade

Coast deck

The brick-paved stepped deck facing the sea provides a view of ships coming and going in Tokyo Bay as well as airplanes from Handa Airport. The view of the sun setting behind the city on the opposite shore is also a sight to behold.
